ABOUT ALAN:

From: Dublin, Ireland

College: Martin Methodist

License: Level 1 FAI Coaching Badge; in progress towards USSF badges

Alan played collegiate soccer at Martin Methodist College 2004-2005 where he won a conference and a post season title as well as many individual awards including; Team Offensive player of the year 2005,2006,2007, Team MVP 2007, Transouth Athletic Conference MVP 2007. Alan played two seasons in the Professional Development League with Reading United AC and helped the team to a Mid Atlantic division title and an Eastern Conference regular season title. Alan became the assistant coach at Martin Methodist College in seasons 2008, 2009, guiding Martin to there first appearance at Nationals and a conference championship. During this time, Alan was invited to pre-season trials with Real Salt Lake, MLS. Although not signing a contract, this was a very positive experience from a coaching point of view. In addition to playing experience, Alan has a vast amount of experience with youth camps and player development. Notably, in August 2011, Alan was hired to participate in the Bayern Munich Youth Camp, Munich, Germany. Locally, Alan coaches and trains seasonally, at MBA Academy and FSA Heat Academy as well as hosting and training at seasonal camps across the nation.
